

October, 2008,

So perfect together: Maine couple seeks pure Maine wedding

Biddeford-Saco-OOB Courier
By Gillian Graham

Sarah Goodrich and Noah Hoffman were raised in Maine, met in Maine and . if all goes well . hope to win a wedding in Maine.

Goodrich, 26, of Biddeford and her fiancé, 25-year-old Hoffman of Hartford, Vt., created a video entry using a childhood photos to tell their life stories for the Sebasco Harbor Resort Pure Maine Wedding Giveaway. Chosen as finalists, their video can be viewed . and voted on at www.sebasco.com/puremainewedding.

Goodrich grew up in Yarmouth, where she graduated from Yarmouth High School in 2001. She graduated from Colby College in Waterville in 2005 and is now a member of the class of 2011 at the University of New England College of Osteopathic Medicine.

Hoffman grew up in Harpswell, graduating from Mount Ararat High School in Topsham in 2001. A 2005 Colby graduate, he is currently attending Dartmouth Medical School in Lebanon, N.H.

Though busy with school, Goodrich and Hoffman made time last year to raise $10,000 for a cancer center after Hoffman was diagnosed with an aggressive lymphoma last August. He took a year off from school to undergo intense chemotherapy with Goodrich by his side.

Goodrich and Hoffman expect to find out Oct. 22 if they have won a wedding. If they have not, they plan to be married at the Newagen Inn in Newagen. Regardless of where their wedding is hosted, Goodrich and Hoffman said their guests will have a great time.

It's going to be really fun,+Hoffman said. %The most important thing for us is that everyone who comes has an absolute blast.+