

October, 2008,
Singing Couple

Salem News

By Tom Dalton, Chris Cassidy and Julie Manganis

When the Sebasco Harbor Resort in Maine announced a "Pure Maine Wedding Giveaway," it asked contestants to submit videos explaining why they wanted to get married in Maine. It got a bunch of good ones, including one from a Salem couple, Sara Scavongelli and Matt Card. Sara and Matt do a takeoff on the "Brady Bunch" television show and sing about how they met at work in Boston and discovered that two of their parents graduated from the same high school in Brunswick, Maine.

The Salem couple are one of five finalists. If they win, they get a free wedding at the 550-acre Sebasco Harbor Resort for up to 200 guests. The winner will be picked Oct. 22.

To check out the videos, go to the resort's Web site at www.sebasco.com.

For full article: http://www.salemnews.com/punews/local\_story\_283234921.html