

April/May, 2008,
Pirate Wanted

Career World

"I really need a pirate," Leslie Hunter told Career World. Hunter hires people at the Sebasco Harbor Resort in southern Maine. "You have to be energetic, outgoing, funny, and able to think on your feet," she said, adding, "You can't be afraid of birds." That's because the pirate uniform features a real parrot perched on your shoulder.