Tantalize your boating taste buds by spending scrumptious days messing about in midcoast Maine.

Sebasco by the Sea

Situated at the tip of Popham Peninsula a dozen miles due south of Bath, 575-acre Sebasco Harbor Resort was a recommendation that kept cropping up as I asked local contacts about a boat-friendly, family-style resort from which to base a Downeast expedition. After arriving at what is known locally simply as "Sebasco," we began to see why. Driving the long lane on the approach to the main lodge, we were flanked by greens that held as many kids as adult golfers playing a nine-hole course adjacent to a scenic waterfront.
