SEBASCO HARBOR RESORT RECEIVES NATIONAL ACCOLADES

Pure Maine Resort Featured in 'Chronicle' and Ranked #20 Best Resort by Parents Magazine

Sebasco Estates, Maine (May 20, 2008) ó Sebasco Harbor Resort, a vacation destination of over 550 acres on the rocky mid-coast of Maine, was featured in the Thursday, May 15 episode of Boston's Emmy award-winning Chronicle program on WCVB-TV. Sebasco Harbor Resort was also ranked #20 best family resorts in Parents magazine.

“We’re very pleased to be recognized by national media such as Chronicle and Parents,” said Bob Smith, proprietor and official Lighthouse Keeper at Sebasco Harbor Resort. “Over the years we’ve enjoyed coverage in magazines from AAA Home & Away to Country Living to Travel Weekly. It’s exciting for us to get Sebasco and Maine on their radar.”

The “Chronicle” segment was entitled “A Tank Away” and featured several road trips, including one to the Bath area, which may be taken with one tank of gas and a Toyota Prius. Smith, along with new executive chef Sebastian Carosi, appeared in the program. The show aired at 7:30 p.m Thursday night on ABC affiliates throughout parts of New England. “Chronicle” has been airing on WCVB-TV, the Boston ABC affiliate, since 1982 and has a loyal viewership of approximately 200,000.

The May issue of Parents reported on the ten best beach resorts for families, through an extensive review process of more than 200 beach resorts in the U.S. and Caribbean. Sebasco Harbor Resort was named #20 and recognized for its saltwater pool, ice-cream stand, and supervised children’s programs; it did not make the top ten simply because it is not directly on a beach. Sebasco Harbor Resort was in great company with other world-class resorts such as the Sheraton Grand Bahama Island Our Lucaya Resort, Bahamas; Club Med Punta Cana, Dominican Republic; South Seas Island Resort, Captiva, FL; Altantis, Disney's Vero Beach Resort, FL; Beaches Negril Resort & Spa, Jamaica and Hilton Hawaiian Village, Honolulu, HI. Parents has a monthly circulation of 2.2 million.
