

Management Biography: Michael Lynch General Manager

Michael Lynch is the General Manager/Partner of Sebasco Harbor Resort.

Michael brings to Sebasco Harbor Resort a successful track record and experience as a resort manager. Most recently he was the Director of Sales and Marketing at the Cliff House Resort, a position where he also gained significant operations and development experience. He is the president-elect of the New England chapter of Meeting Planners International; previously he worked in sales and marketing and spa development at the Mountain View Grand Resort Hotel (Whitefield, N.H.) and the Samoset Resort (Rockport).

Michael's introduction to the travel industry came early in his career, when he managed corporate events around the country for the Leisure Magazine Division of the New York Times, including Golf Digest. He subsequently transitioned to the resort side of the business. He is a member of the New England Inns and Resorts Association's Board of Directors and is a past president of the Camden/Rockport Chamber of Commerce. Michael was recently recognized by MPI as "Chapter Leader of the Year" by his peers.

Michael and his wife Ann Marie reside in Freeport with their three daughters.
